IMPROVING HIGHWAYS

Modern Roads Greatly Appreciated By Automobilists and Traveling Public Generally

The Gazette recently, with no little pride, directed attention to the improved roads leading into Alexandria, and contrasted them with the unsatisfactory highways which formerly caused so much inconvenience to the traveling public. At times some roads were practically impassable. The good roads movement is spreading all over Virginia, and it will not be long before what are now often quagmires will have been converted into modern highways.

The Fairfax Herald is rejoicing also over the new order of things. This week's issue contains the following:

"The movement launched for the betterment and extension of the turnpikes which now extend from Alexandria, through the counties of Fairfax, Loudoun and Fauquier into the Shenandoah Valley, through Ashby's Gap and Snicker's Gap, is worthy of the strongest support our county can give. Under a recent act of Congress, $75,000,000 was appropriated for road improvement work through a period of five years. Of this sum, Virginia is to receive $110,000 for its roads. The Little River Turnpike is the main artery for travel westward across the northern portion of the State. At Alexandria it connects with modern roads from north to south and along its entire length roads leading to all sections of the State branch from it. With the road thoroughly improved and modernized, and it is said that no very large sum would be needed for the work, it would add largely to progress and values in this section of the State. If the road is carried across the mountains, through Clarke and Frederick counties, it will connect with Shenandoah Valley pike and give that section a direct outlet to tidewater and to the captal of the nation. Let everyone put in thir best efforts to secure this road improvement."

HOT BATH AND GAS KILL

Stalwart Blacksmith Oddly Meets Death by a Surprise.

Bethlehem, Pa., Oct. 21.—Judson Jones, a Bethlehem Steel Work blacksmith, was found dead, from a peculiar mishap, in the bathroom at his home at Edwardsville.

Returning home from work, Thursday, Jones determined to take a bath and lighted agas hot-water generator, the gas being furnished by a coin meter. The flow stopped just about the time the superheated water filled the tub, and Jones stepped into the scalding liquid.

The resultant shock is supposed to have affected his heart, causing him to fall backward, his head hitting the floor, producing unconsciousness.

In the meantime some one in the house put a coin in the meter and the flow of gas entered the bathroom, and when Jones was discovered he was dead.

UNSEASONABLE WEATHER.

Washington, Oct. 21—Frost for North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia, and low temperatures over the interior, followed by a rise Sunday in Tennessee and the East Gulf States, was forecast by the Weather Bureau last night.

A depression that was over the Southwest upper Lake region Thursday night developed yesterday into a severe disturbance, followed by general snows and rains that covereed practically the entire country from the Mississippi valley eastward, except Georgia and South Carolina. High temperatures prevailed today in the Atlantic states, but elsewhere except in the extreme Southwest, there is unseasonable cold weather. Early yesterday the line of freezing extended into Central Texas.

HUNTERS, TAKE NOTICE

Points in the New Virginia Game Law Which Should be Remembere by All.

As the hunting season opens November 1, and closes December 31, it is well to call the attention of Alexandria nimrods to a few points in the new game law, which may not be altogether plain.

First, any man who hunts beyond his or his neighbor's property (which must touch his at some point) must have a license. This includes the hunting of squirrels and night hunting also.

Second, if any property is posted, saying written permission must be obtained before hunting will be allowed, then all who hunt there must have written permission, and carry it and the license with them. If not posted verbal permission must be obtained.

Third, all non-residents who do not own property in the State, must first obtain a license. Any non-resident who owns property in the State will have the same privilege as a resident.

Fourth, no license is transferable.

Fifth, all persons found hunting on Sunday will be fined not less than $5 nor more than $50, including costs. An alien may obtain a license by paying $20. A non-resident $10 and a resident may obtain a State license by paying $3, or a county license by paying $1. A license may be obtained by making application to F. W. Richardson, Fairfax, Va.

Everyone who is interested in hunting should become familiar with the new game laws, a copy of which may be obtained from John S. Parsons, Richmond, Va., so that there may be no violations of the game laws, as there will be wardens and ex-officio wardens all over the county, who will see that the law is inforced.

U. S. TROOPS IN BATTLE

Engaged For 45 Minutes With Band Of Mexicans Who Fired Upon Them Across Rio Grande

San Antonio, Texas, Oct. 21—American troops and Mexicans clashed near San Jose in the Big Bend county, Thursday afternoon, according to a report received by General Funston early last night from Col. Joseph Gaston, commander of the district. The fight lasted for 45 minutes. No losses were suffered by the Americans and information is lacking regarding loss among the Mexicans.

Colonel Gaston's report said that a band of about 30 Mexicans opened fire on a detachment composed of 23 men of the Sixth Cavalry and Texas National Guard cavalry squadron, engaged in patrol duty between Presidio and Rudiosa. Lieutenant Cudington, of the Texas squadron commanding the troops, ordered his men to return the fire.

A vigorous exchange of shots continued for 45 minutes, the Americans and Mexicans firing in skirmish formation from covered positions on either side of the Rio Grande. Information from Colonel Gaston did not indicate that the United States troops crossed in pursuit of the Mexicans. After the fight Lieutenant Cudington returned to Ruidosa with his command.

Whether the Mexicans were de facto government troops or members of a bandit band was not known by General Funston last night. He is awaiting a detailed report of the action.

LAST NIGHT OF BAZAAR

Mystic Shrine of Washington to Bring Arab Patrol and Band

Last night was a gala night at the Masonic bazaar, Columbia and Potomac Commanderies, Knights Templar, of Washington came over in full force to add color and animation to the occasion, while the Fraternity band, of 27 pieces supplied music to the delight of the assembled throng.

The bazaar will close tonight and in order that the committee may canvass votes in time to announce the result of the contest of the loving cup, ring, and other special features, all ballots must be turned in by 10:30 sharp. Almas Temple Mystic Shrine, with its Arab Partol, of eighty-seven and "tom-tom" band will constitute the special feature. The patrol will give an exhibition drill and perform some of their side-splitting stunts, which have made these fun-makers famous.

Potentate Estes accompanied the Commandery last evening, as did Right Eminent Grand Commander Lem Towers. Eminent Commander Towers delivered a short address, expressing the hope that both the Fair and the cause for which it is being held would prove not only successful, but a glorious Masonic achievement, as he was sure it would. Potentate Estes informed the committee that they would bring the "camel" with them, and turn him loose this evening, to dispense the real milk of the desert, and those who fail to be present and witness the escapades of this animal will forfeit a rare chance, which will probably not be offered them again in a long time.

The Shriners will leave the train at Patrick street and march down King, headed by their unique musical organization, while the Lambskin band, will greet them at Armory Hall with a burst of real music and the fun will begin.

Columbia drill team gave a fine exhibition drill last night under command of Captain Shackelford, which was much enjoyed.

Great interest is manifested in the various contests, in several of which the candidates are running neck-and-neck.

WINS ANOTHER GAME

Alexandria High School football team won another game yesterday 14 to 6, playing against the Gonzaga team. The game was strongly contested and only by being better coached were the Maroon and White boys able to win, as they were greatly outweighed. Gonzaga has one of the strongest teams in the city of Washington. They defeated Eastern High school last week, and the Alexandria boys had to fight hard to win their game. Some complaint is heard that the games are not being supported as they ought to be by the citizens generally, and it is hoped that better attendance will be seen in the future. An effort is also to be made to try and secure a shower bath for the use of the teams, which might to be provided, it would seem, without serious difficulty.

WAIVES LEGAL NOTICE

Druggists and Soft Drink Dealers Given Chance to Get Licenses Under Prohibition Law.

Druggists and dealers in soft drinks in this city and section are hastening to comply with the new prohibition law, which requires them to procure licenses from the circuit court, in order to be able to sell certain alcoholic products or any form of soft drink, There is no charge for the license, but in the case of druggists a thirty days notice posted on the front door and publication for three weeks in a newspaper is required, the notice to state the time when application for license will be made. In the case of those who sell soft drinks only the law apparently does not require such notice, but many soft drink dealers, to be on the safe side, have given notice of application.

As few if any druggists in this part of Virginia have given it before the prohibition law goes into effect, on November 1, Judge Thornton of the Circuit Court of Alexandria, has let it be known that he will waive notice in the case of those making application at once.

In Alexandria county he will receive applications up to Friday of next week, and in Fairfax county he will receive applications at Fairfax on Monday, October 30. In Alexandria city the notices being printed state that applications will be made on November 20.

It should be understood that on and after November 1, no soft drinks can be sold except by charitable benevolent organizations without procuring a license, under heavy penalty.

The license costs nothing, but it must be procured in order to do business lawfully. In addition druggists must have a separate license to buy or sell whisky, wine, brandy, grain alcohol, and other forms of alcohol, for medicinal,mechanical or sacramental purposes only. These spirits can be bought only upon a physicians prescription or an affidavit by the purchaser, each of which will cost a five cent stamp.

Strangles Self in Prison

Trenton, Oct., 21—Because she was denied finery by the authorities of the State prison, Anna Rickert, 30 years old, tore a strip of linen from her bed sheet at noon Thursday and lying across the cot in her cell, strangled herself to death. The woman was serving from four to seven years for larceny from the person. She was sentenced from Hudson county.

When received at the prison, January 29,1915, the woman wore some fancy clothing. Of late she had the notion that she should be permitted to wear her street clothes instead of the prison garb. This request was refused and the woman flew into a rage. She deliberately tied the improvised noose about her throat tight enough to cause slow strangulation.

SINGING ON THE WAY

Alexandrians Pack Special Southern Railway Train to Charlottesville Yesterday Afternoon.

About six hundred Alexandrians made a flying trip to Charlottesville yesterday afternoon. The visit was for the purpose of attending the Gypsy Smith evangelical services now being conducted in that place, The union depot was filled by those who had determined to go on the trip and hundreds of others who were on hand to witness the departure of the Alexandrians.

The train left at 2 o'clock, schedule time, many aboard being unable at first to obtain seats, but when Cameron, the first station outside the city limits, was reached, another coach was added, when conditions became more comfortable.

When the train was again under motion the hymn books used at the services in this city were brought into requisition, and "Beulah Land," "Brighten the Corner," "Since Jesus Came Into My Heart," etc., were sung heartily. This continued the entire run, and the glee manifested by every one aboard was striking.

The train drew into the union depot at Charlottesville at 4:30 o'clock, and the Alexandrians spent from that time until about 7:30 o'clock, when the services in the tabernacle began, in sight-seeing about the city.

Ample accommodations for the visitors had been reserved by those in charge of the tabernacle, and when the Alexandrians entered there was great enthusiasm. As is Rev. Gypsy Smith's custom, the visitors were requested to stand, when they received a hearty welcome, and when the singing began the Alexandrians were made to demonstrate their vocal powers alone, which brought forth much applause.

The preacher took for his subject the case of Zaccheus, in the book of Luke, and handled it in an able manner.

A pleasant feature of the evening was the welcome given to Mrs. Coles, wife of the professor. The couple it will be remembered, were united in wedlock during the last week of the campaign in Alexandria. When Mrs. Coles, appeared on the rostrum, the cheers were deafening.

Rev. Mr. Smith, Prof. Coles and his wife, and Miss Hoagland, the pianist, exchanged greetings with the Alexandrians at the close of the services, and about 10:30 o'clock the Alexandrians began to wend their way to the depot. At 10:50 the train started for this city, when the gospel hymn book was again brought into use. the singing was in each of the coaches of the train all the way back to Alexandria. The visitors reached home at 1:15 o'clock, this morning, all realizing "that it was good for them to have been there."

Rev. Gypsy Smith accompanied the Alexandrians to the train, and remained at the dopt until it left.

SINGING PILGRIMS.

Scenes on the special train carrying Alexandrians to Charlottesville yesterday afternoon as well as those on the return trip of the visitors in the wee sma' hours of last night were spectacular, and as the ten cars shot through Orange, Culpeper, Manassas, and other places on the Washington Division of the Southern Railway it attracted momentary attention, as it passed as a ship in the night. Virtuallly all the occupants of the train were exercising their vocal powers both going and coming. Every one was in good humor and all enjoying themselves.

To the older Alexandrians in the party the scenes reproduced reminiscences of midnight rides on trains in the dim past— "When You and I Were Young, Maggie."

We refer to days following the civil war. At that time Carlin's Springs, on the Washington and Old Dominion Line, five or six miles from this city, in Alexandria county, was a popular excursion resort. It often required long trains to transport excursionists, and the few passenger coaches operated by the road (then the Alexandria, Loudoun and Hampshire which was in its infancy) were insufficient to transport the many who patronized fire company and social organization excursions, picnics, tournaments, etc., to the resort. Hence it was often necessary to utilize flat cars. The return trip, on one elongated train, composed mostly of flat cars with slabs for benches, was thrilling—those long-to-be-remembered midnight rides, males and females, sandwiched together as close as herring in a box, and all exercising their lungs, were experiences not easily effaced.

They did not render spiritual songs, however, but "Dixie," "I am a Good Old Rebel, Now That's Just What I Am," and othr classical ditties brought to the birth during the short life of the Southern Confederacy. There were on some occasions disorder, and such gatherings were eschewed by people of quiet natures.

But another generation was in the saddle last night. They were singing hymns and, acting upon scriptural injunction, were "making melody in their hearts." There was nothing to offend anyone and not a word was uttered which would have brought a blush to any cheek.

"How good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!" It should always be so.

PEERS MAKE SACRIFICES

There has for many years been an unjustfiable observation to the effect that England makes other nations do her fighting. We never saw the justice of this assertion. England has shown not only her willingness to fight for her ability to do so on many occasions. This had often been demonstrated long before the outbreak of the present war.

Five years ago, when Germany was preparing to drench Europe in blood, the Kaiser's observers in London submitted a report to that monarch in keeping with his dreams. England, the spies said, was composed mostly of shopkeepers who were ignorant of tactics. They couldn't fight; hence the German Emperor had little to fear from Albion. The same old charge was made that Great Britain would fight by proxy if forced into the conflict, and would make no sacrifices. The absurdity of all this is shown by a dispatch from London which tells us that fifty-five sons of British peers have fallen on the battle fields of the European war. The last was Lieut. W. Wyndham Tennant, the eldest son of Lord Glenconner, who was killed in France September 22, at the age of 19 years. Only a few days before the death in action of his cousin, Lieut. Mark Tennant, was reported.

Four Cabinet Ministers—Mr. Asquith, Lord Lansdowne, Mr. Pike Pease and Arthur Henderson—have lost sons [illegible] and Lord Crewe [illegible] sons.

MISSION OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

The session of the Sunday School Institute of the Diocese of Washington this week was marked by an address by Rev. Beverley D. Tucker, Jr., of the University of Virginia, on "The Danger of a Godless Education."

Rev. Llewellyn N. Caley, of the Church of St. Jude and Nativity, Philadelphia, during an address he delivered said that Sunday Schools were not for children alone, but for adults as well.

This is in accord with the opinion of Robert Raikes and others, who were the originators of Sunday schools. No one ever grows too old for membership in a Sunday school class.

Many years ago the late Rev. W. U. Murkland, of Baltimore, delivered a sermon in the First Presbyterian Church on south Fairfax street from the words of the Saviour as He drew near Jerusalem and wept over the city which was destined to pass through such terrible scenes thirty years later when the Roman armies laid siege to it:

"If thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong unto they peace, but now they are hid from thine eyes. For the days shall come upon thee when thine enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side, and shall lay thee even with the ground, and thy children within thee; and they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another; because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation."

Among many things the preacher uttered a truth we all know too well: "Men are not only responsible for what they do know, but also for what they could have known."

Since the close of the recent evangelical campaign in this city adult Bible classes have been organized in nearly all the churches, and men and women familiar with the Scriptures are endeavoring to enlist the attention of thousands who are but little acquainted with the contents of the book of books. Many persons of both sexes mingle with us daily who have not the time to make the Bible a study. The books necessary are not available to the great majority, and those who are apt to teach and familiar with the Bible stand ready to aid all seekers after truth and their readiness to do so should be appreciated.

The entire church might, in a measure, be a Bible class. There are many queries which honest souls would be glad to have opportunities to propound.

As the Rev. Mr. Caley suggested, the work of Sunday schools should not be confined to children. We are never too old to learn. If we acquire nothing else than a more intimate acquaintance with what has been written that much will have been accomplished; besides the Word will be kept fresh in our minds by regular attendance on Bible classes.

The last book of the sacred canon is "The Revelation." It abounds in allegorical language and figures of speech which often carry us over our heads. In the preface it does not say "Blessed is every one who understands," but "Blessed is he who reads or he who hears the words of the prophecy of this book" Then we will be blessed if we are but readers and hearers of the scriptures. Surely this blessing is placed within grasp of all.

James Johnson, of Marshall, Fauquier county, 26 years old, a farm hand, was murdered near his home some time last Saturday night or Sunday morning. He was shot through the heart. His slayer then fastened a chain around his neck, hitched a horse to it and dragged the body into a secluded spot in a woods about 150 yards from the scene of the murder. The body was not found until Wednesday. There was no witness of the murder so far as is known. A suspect has been arrested. It is said the murder was the result of a drunken altercation. Johnson is survived by his widow and five children.

The King Lumber Company, of Charlottesville, one of the most widely known concerns of its kind in this section ,has gone into voluntary liquidation, and Judge A. D. The assets of the firm are placed at $159,410.11 and the liabilities at $143,201.55.

Henry Hecht, believed to be a Norfolk man, was found dead on the floor of his room in a Danville, boarding house yesterday afternoon. Coroner C. C. Hudson decided that he had died of an overdose of morphine. On Wednesday Dr. W. C. Yeatts prescribed 30 grains of morphine sulphate for Hecht and also for J. T. Stone, his companion.

Charles Lawhorne, aged nineteen who was shot in a mysterious manner at Balcony Fall, near Lynchburg, the night of October 9, died Thursday, his spine having been severed by a bullet. NOT DUE TO SEX ALONE.

Alexandria Women Have Learned The Cause of Many Mysterious Pains and Aches.

Many women have come to know that sex isn't the reason for all backaches, dizzy, headaches and urinary disorders. Men have these troubles, too, and often they come from kidney weakness. To live simply, eat sparingly, take better care of one's self and to use Doan's Kidney Pills, is bound to help bad kidneys get better. There is no other remedy so well-recommended by Alexandria people. Read this case:

Mrs. Maude Simpson, 211 Wilkes street, Alexandria, says: 'I suffered from dull pains in my hips and across the small of my back. I felt all run down and nervous, due to the effects of disordered kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills gave me relief."

(Statement given March 27 11912)

On April 9, 1915, Mrs. Simpson said: "Whenever I have that tired ache across my kidneys, I use Doan's Kidney Pills. Nothing has ever given me so much relief."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Simpson, had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props, Buffalo, N. Y.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Detroit will be the meeting place of the 1919 triennial convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church, if the house of deputies of the convention, in session in St. Louis, concurs with the house of bishops in its selection, made yesterday. The house of bishops submitted to the lowe house for approval the re-election of Bishop Arthur Seldon Lloyd, of New York, as president of the board of missions and of George Gorden King, of Newport, R. I., as treasurer. The convention approved a plan of pensions for the clergy. Each parish is taxed for the pension fund. The plan, as adopted, provides for clergymen who have reached the age of 68, a minimum pension of $600 and a maximum of $2,000.

The body of Mary A. Robinson, 60 years old, 3344 Volta place northwest, Washington, missing from home since Wednesday, was found floating yesterday in the Potomac River.

"It's late for fireflies," said Col. John Frengougis, of the royal Greek army, as he emerged from the home of a friend at Rosebank, S. I., in the early morning darkness yesterday. And putting out his foot he touched the flicker of light before him on the ground. The flicker came from the tip of an electric wire broken by the storm. Seventeen hundred volts shot through the man killing him instantly. The Colonel was in America on a special mission for King Constantine.

Von Ludendorf has joined his chief, Field Marshal von Hindenburg, in opposing a more ruthless prosecution of submarine warfare. Field Marshal von Hindenburg's position was made plain at a meeting of the independent committee for German peace terms last Saturday when through a personal representative he requested the committee to abstain from agitation for a sharper submarine campaign.

That the Kaiser is determined to stand by Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg is shown by an incident revealed yesterday. A petition asking the retirement of the chancellor was sent to the Kaiser, but he refused to receive it. Later the Kaiser refused to receive the signatories.

Will Turner, convicted of killing F. C. Avery last fall, was hanged yesterday in Gainesville, Fla. Turner was arrested in Washington, D. C., where he was trying to dispose of Avery's horses. Later Avery's body was found buried under a barn.

First an automobile, and then a bungalow, were used as "lures" in the alleged alienation of the affections of the Rev. J. Milo Robinson by Mrs. Inez I. Patterson, a wealthy widow, of Freehold, N. J., according to the clergyman's wife, Mrs. Loeta A. Robinson, who yesterday resumed her testimony in her $5,000 suit against her rival. Mrs. Robinson swore the widow began by offering her machine to the clergyman and later, when she went South, turned over her bungalow to the Robinsons. She testified she repeatedly found her husband and Mrs. Patterson in compromising situations. The Rev. Mr. Robinson, who was formerly pastor of the Asbury Park Congregational Church, has not been seen since August of last year.

Germany intends to keep up her submarine activities off the United States coast, according to a dispatch from Amsterdam. The telegram quotes the Voles Zeitung, of Cologne, as saying: "German submarines will operate in the future in the western Atlantic. They will visit the well-known shipping routes around the eastern point of Nantucket Island and will sink British merchantmen after giving the crews opportunity to save themselves."

Because he has been at various times of a vivid career a barkeper, actor, salesman and lecturer, the Baptist ministerial association of Brooklyn and Long Island has demanded the resignation of the Rev. George K. McDonald as pastor of the Union Baptist Church in Green Point. Rev. McDonald, who is 50 years old, was ousted from his first pastorate, in Kalamazoo, Mich., as a result, it was declared, of some of his communicants happening in on the remains of a wine supper in the pastor's study. A pretty member of the choir had been the guest.

Roumanian troops are pushing back the invading Austro-German forces on the Transylvanian frontier. At Praedel the Roumanians drove back Teuton units beyond the border. The Roumanians also claim to have gained ground in the Boran defile. In the Tortus valley, the Roumanians forced the Austro-Germans to retire and took 600 prisoners and twelve cannon.

Field Marshal Alexander, H. R. von Kluck, who commanded the right wing of the German army in its sweep toward Paris in the fall of 1914, has been placed on the retired list at his own request. He had never returned to the front since he was wounded by shrapnel fire in March, 1915, while inspecting advanced positions. The field marshal was 70 years of age last May.

Closing in on Peronne from the south, the French troops of Gen. Foch have maintained for twenty-four hours a series of attacks, all of which have resulted in steady progress. The main blows are being delivered on the Biauches-La Masonnette front, a sector of abou a mile and a half. So far more than 250 prisoners have been taken.

North-western train, No. 111, Milwaukee to Ashland, jumped the rails near Milwaukee early yesterday and plunged into the ditch, killing Engineer Fitzgerald and Fireman Peschain. Steel coaches saved passengers from serious injury. Northwestern officials claimed that they have evidence the train was deliberately wrecked. They declared it was the fifth attempt in the last four years to wreck this train.

After desperate fighting the Serbians have captured the village of rod, in Macedonia, the heights to the north of that place and the vil- f Veles-Selo and are pursuing the Bulgars northward. On the remainder of that front there also is heavy fighting in favor of the Serbs, who have captured since September 14, 43 guns, not including trench guns. By the capture of Brod and Veles-Selo the Serbians have pierced the Bulgarian second line and now are confronted by the third and final line on the western slopes of Morsrova range, which brings them appreciably nearer to Monastir.

FAMILY AVOIDS SERIOUS SICKNESS

By Being Constantly Supplied With Thedford's Black-Draught.

McDuff, Va.—"I suffered for seven years," says Mrs. J. B. Whittaker, of this place, "with sick headache, and stomach trouble.

Ten years ago a friend told me to try Thedford's Black-Draught, which I did and I found it to be the best family medicine for young and old.

I keep Black-Draught on hand all the time now, and when my children feel a little bad, they ask me for a dose, and it does them more good than any medicine they ever tried.

We never have a long spell of sickness in our family, since we commenced using Black-Draught."

Thedford's Black Draught is purely vegetable, and has been found to regulate weak stomachs, aid digestion, relieve indigestion, colic, wind, nausea, headache, sick stomach, and similar symptoms.

It has been in constant use for more than 70 years, and has benefited more than a million people.

To All Democrats:

The undersigned were appointed by the National Democratic Committee as Auxiliary Finance Committee, for the City of Alexandria, and have received an urgent request that we call upon all Democrats to help the cause.

Alexandria Democrats have thus far done nothing.

We, therefore, call upon every democrat in Alexandria and surrounding country to send us such contribution as he or she can, whether large or small.

Send something, if only a few cents, and show your interest. We will thankfully receive any aid whether $100 or 10 cents.

Remember that this is a big country and that there are many close and doubtful states; and the National Committee must have large means to carry on a successful fight.

The Republicans have large interests that contribute to their overflowing treasury.

The Democrats must depend upon voluntary offerings, and mainly upon a great number of small ones, to make up their necessitous treasury. Send your contribution to any member of the Committee, and, whether it be large or small ,please send at once.

It is greatly needed.

This is a ca'l to women as well as men. Respectfully,

J. K. M. Norton,
